

Annex C

List of research specialisms for Sub-panel 22: Social Work and Social Policy.

Please use this list to provide a general indication of the research specialisms to be submitted:

Addictions
Child protection
Children and families
Community issues
Crime
Crime prevention
Criminal justice
Criminology
Cross-national comparative research
Cultural competence
Demography
Disabilities
Diversity issues including: age, ethnicity, faith, gender, sexuality and other fields
Domestic violence
Education
Gerontology
Health
Health services
Historical issues
Housing
Inequalities of income and wealth
International development
Leadership and management
Mental health
Migration and asylum seekers
Older people
Pathways into and out of crime
Pedagogies in the area of the sub-panel
Penal theories and penalties
Policing
Policy evaluation
Practice learning
Practice methodologies/interventions
Prisons
Probation
Professional and inter-professional practice
Psycho-social criminology
Public administration

Public spending, finance and taxation
Religion and spirituality
Research methodologies
Resettlement
Restorative justice and mediation
Social mobility
Social policy/work and new technologies
Social security and cash benefits
Terrorism
Theoretical and conceptual issues
Third sector/civil society
User perspectives
Values and ethics
Work, employment and unemployment
Young people
Youth justice
Other categories